Deputy Governor of the CBA Hovhannes Khachatryan participated in the XIII Congress of Financiers of Kazakhstan in Almaty

14.11.2025

On 14 November, Almaty hosted the XIII Congress of Financiers of Kazakhstan, which brought together representatives of central banks, financial regulators, financial institutions and international organizations. During the event, participants discussed current challenges and trends in the financial sector, including economic uncertainty, digitalization of financial services, the development of financial markets and consumer protection issues.

Deputy Governor of the Central Bank of Armenia Hovhannes Khachatryan participated in the panel discussion “Financial Systems in an Era of Economic Turbulence and Digital Transformation.” During the discussion, he shared Armenia’s experience in maintaining financial stability, spoke about the importance of effective policies in times of uncertainty and underlined the role of digital technologies in making financial systems more efficient and accessible.