An exhibition dedicated to the history of currency circulation in Armenia has opened in Artik

16.10.2026

An exhibition dedicated to the history of currency circulation in Armenia has opened in Artik. Visitors have the opportunity to explore the history of Armenian currency, learn about the banknotes and coins issued by the Central Bank of Armenia, and gain valuable financial knowledge.

The exhibition is open at the Varaz Samuelyan House of Culture in Artik until October 22.

We are pleased to share photos from the exhibition’s opening ceremony.
