

NOTICE

on replenishment of monetary collection of the Central Bank of Armenia

To replenish its monetary collection, the Central Bank of Armenia will purchase from individuals and legal entities the coins, banknotes and financial documents, which were in circulation in the territory of historical Armenia at different periods.

The Central Bank of Armenia will only purchase the coins, banknotes and financial documents that are very well preserved and worth to be considered a part of the CBA's monetary collection.

A specialized commission set to purchase coins, notes and financial documents sits in the main premise of the Central Bank of Armenia in Yerevan (6 Vazgen Sargsyan str.).

To proceed with submitting coins, notes and financial documents to the commission, you are welcome to send high quality photos of the proposed items using the e-mail robert.kocharyan@cba.am or calling 010 59 26 24.
