9.	Statement on Cash Flows	9	Quarterly Annually
10.	Notes Attached to Financial Statements	10	Quarterly Annually
11.	Statement on Annual Stamp Duty	11	Annually

Chapter 2. Terms and Conditions of Submitting the Reports

3. Insurance brokers shall submit to the Central Bank the reports defined by this legal act in electronic format in protected files provided by the Central Bank. Electronic copies of the reports shall be filed to the Central Bank through Internet by the report receiving system. In case of the system failure, reports shall be delivered by magnetic carriers with the attached letter on the failure of the Internet report receiving system. Report delivered through any other means than is defined hereof, shall be deemed not delivered.

4. Reports delivered by magnetic carriers or filed through the Internet report receiving system must be protected with a code and have verification number.

5. The file code has the following structure:

Insurance broker's code	Dash	Report number	Dot	Abbreviation
XXXXX	-	XX	.	XIs

The code structure defined above is compulsory. Files submitted to the Central Bank shall not contain any other information except information required by the reporting forms.

6. The report shall be dated as of the last day of the reporting period. The date shall be provided in the following format: day/month/year (for example 31/01/2003). For the purposes of the reports one year means 365 or 366 days (unless comments of a report clearly define the number of days in one year for the purposes of that report).

7. Reports shall contain data as of the last day of the reporting period (or as of any other respective day, if company worked on week end, or bank holiday days).

8. Periods for the submission of the quarterly reports to the Central Bank by the insurance brokers are defined as the 15-th business day of the next month after the reporting period. Periods for the submission of the annual reports to the Central Bank by the insurance brokers are defined as the 10-th business day in February of the next year after the reporting period, except the report No 11, which shall be submitted to the Central Bank by the 10-th business day after the final date for paying the annual stamp duty, stipulated by law.

8.1 Where the reports of the insurance brokers shall be submitted to the Central Bank both on the quarterly and annual basis, the 4-th quarter report shall be substituted by the annual report within the period defined for the annual report.

9. The adjusted reports submitted after the periods defined by this legal act, shall be filed electronically in accordance with paragraph 3 hereof, with the attached letter of notice about the adjustments addressed to the Central Bank Chairman. The adjusted reports shall be deemed filed to the Central Bank only if the electronic copy and the letter of notice are available.

10. A report is deemed delivered and received if its electronic copy is readable in electronic format and it does not contain any software or other technical shortfalls (related to the technical means of delivering the report), unless the software or other technical shortfalls existed in the files provided by the Central Bank.

11. If the submitted data did not change in the reporting period, or operations subject to reporting were not carried out, the insurance broker must instead provide a letter of notice, which indicates names of the reports that have not been submitted.

12. Staff member of the Central Bank division in charge of control over insurance brokers, who is responsible for the control over the respective insurance broker may request by a letter from the insurance broker to provide additional information and clarifications on parts of the reports, which need clarification and explanation, or for specific analytical purposes.

13. The insurance broker shall provide explanations and/or other requested information within three days after receiving such request (unless other period is indicated in the letter).

14. Depending on the business address of the insurance broker, the request may be submitted to the broker by phone (SMS), e-Mail or any other envisaged means of contact.

15. The authorized representative of the insurance broker may be invited to the Central Bank division in charge of control over insurance brokers in order to provide clarifications and explanations on the reports.

16. The letter of notice shall be signed by the head of the Central Bank division in charge of control over insurance brokers or the deputy.

Chapter 3. General Rules on Completing Reports

17. Information on insurers and reinsurers in the reports of the insurance brokers shall be filled out without quotation marks, only in Armenian letters (font Times Armenian), without using Unicode letters and text containing (Alt+Enter) keyboard options.

18. Separation of life and non-life insurance classes in the reports defined hereof, shall be made in accordance with Article 7, parts 2, 3 and 4 of the Republic of Armenia law "On Insurance and insurance Activities".

19. Mixed insurance contracts shall be filled out within the insurance class to which the main risk of the mixed insurance contract pertains.

20. From the point of view of the reports defined hereof:

1) information about the number of coinsurance reports signed in the reporting period, shall be reflected only in the report of one coinsurer, while insurance premium, annuity and insurance award shall be reflected as the share amount of each coinsurer;

2) information about the number of the insurance contract reinsured at various reinsurers during the reporting period, shall be reflected only in the report of one coinsurer, while insurance premium, annuity and insurance award shall be reflected as the share amount of each coinsurer;

21. Information about insurance awards, premiums, annuities and number of insurance contracts shall be filed out in the report in accordance with the types of intermediary operations provided in paragraph 70, hereof.

21.1 Where the insurer (reinsurer) and insurance broker sign a mutual settlement act on insurance awards and duly execute it, while providing information about actually paid premiums and awards insurance broker shall show the amount of insurance premiums and awards before execution of mutual settlements, but not their balance.

22. Where the insurance broker does not carry out mediatory insurance activities on a specific insurance class or with a specific insured person, the respective fields in the report shall not be completed. Where the result of any information is equal to zero, the respective field in the report shall show "0".

23. Terms "receivable", "payable", "transferable" when they are used in the report are treated as amounts accrued pursuant to the contract.

24. Term "insurance premium" as used in the report, means gross insurance premium specified under the insurance contract. Gross insurance premium includes premium due from the insured person reduced by the amount of discount and increased by the amount of bonus, if discount and/or bonus are envisaged by the insurance contract.

25. In the meaning of this legal act, insurance (reinsurance) contract is deemed signed from the date when it enters into force and the insurance (reinsurance) company commits to the insurance risk.

26. Amounts provided in the report shall be indicated in thousands of Armenian drams.

- 14) operations defined in clauses 8, 9 and 10 hereof, together;

71. Report No 5 shall be completed in accordance with Annex 7.

72. Where the insurance broker carries out intermediary operations with more than one insurance company, report No 5 shall be completed for each insurance company (code of the respective insurance company shall be filled out in the column "Insurance Company Code") and separately for all the insurance companies (column "Insurance Company Code" shall show the word "Total").

73. Column 3 in the report No 5 shows the total number of insurance contracts signed in the reporting period through the insurance broker for the respective type of mediatory operations; column 4 shows the number of reinsurance contracts; column 6 shows the number of reinsured insurance contracts; column 7 shows the number of reinsured insurance contracts with several reinsurance companies. Information about the number of insurance, coinsurance reinsured insurance contracts and insurance contracts reinsured at several reinsurance companies shall be filled in the line items "preoperational works on signing insurance contracts, including insurance consultation" and "preoperational works on signing reinsurance contracts, including reinsurance consultation" if such information is available for the insurance broker.

74. Column 5 in the Report No 5 shows receivable mediator fees of the insurance broker in the reporting period against insurance contracts by types of intermediary operations, while column 8 shows receivable mediator fees of the insurance broker in the reporting period against reinsured insurance contracts by types of intermediary operations.

Chapter 9. Rules on Completing Reporting Form No 6 Accounting Balance Sheet, Reporting Form No 7 Statement of Financial Performance, Reporting Form No 8 Statement on Changes in Equity Capital, Reporting Form No 9 Statement on Cash Flows and Reporting Form No 10 Notes Attached to Financial Statements

75. Reports NN 7, 8, 9 and 10 shall be completed in accordance with the rules defined by the Order No 485 of the Republic of Armenian Minister of Finance and Economy, dated December 12, 2001 "On Approving Forms and Completion Instruction of the Annual Financial Statements (interim comprehensive package) Provided by Organizations". The reports defined hereof, shall be electronically filed to the Central Bank in the protected files delivered by the Central Bank.

Chapter 10. Rules on Completing Reporting Form No 11 Statement on Annual Stamp Duty

76. Attached to the Report 11 submitted to the Central Bank shall be the scanned copies of documents verifying payment of the annual stamp duty and penalties against failure to pay it in time (if available), such as receipt on paying stamp duty, payment instruction, etc.

77. Reporting period for the Report No 11 is the period between granting the insurance broker license till the same day of each succeeding year.

78. (Repealed AL-18-N, 01.02.11)

79. Report No 11 should provide information on the annual stamp duty paid in the reporting period and subject to payment in the next reporting period.

80. Column 1 in the Report No 11 shows the date when the Central Bank granted the license for insurance broker activity in the day/month year format.

81. Column 2 of the Report shows the amount of the annual stamp duty paid in the reporting period (penalties excluded). Separate payments made by the insurance broker in the reporting period shall be shown in separate lines, except when more than one payment was made in the same day for the same period, in which case their total is shown.

82. Column 3 of the Report shows the amount of penalty paid against failure to fully or partially pay the annual stamp duty. Each separate penalty paid by the insurance broker in the reporting period shall be reflected in a separate line item, only in columns 4, 7 and 8, unless if more than one penalty payments were made on the same day, in which case total figure of the payment shall be shown in the respective column.

83. Column 4 of the Report shows the date of paying stamp duty or penalty in the day/month year format. Where the dates of paying stamp duty and penalty are the same, the values shall be filled out in the same line item, otherwise the values shall be filled out in separate line items with indication of the date of each payment.

84. Columns 5 and 6 of the Report respectively show beginning and end of period for which payment defined in column 2 was made. Thus, for example, if the insurance broker license was issued on 11.08.2003 and on 01.07.08., the insurance broker made the regular annual stamp duty payment for the next year, column 5 shows 11/08/2008, while column 6 shows 11/08/2009. Where the insurance broker covers through a single stamp duty payment several reporting periods, each of them shall be shown in separate line items indicating the respective period for each stamp duty payment.

85. Column 7 of the Report shows the respective account number of the Republic of Armenia state budget to which payments defined in column 2 and (or) column 3 were transferred.

86. Column 8 of the Report shows as a total the overdue part of the annual stamp duty as of the end of day indicated in column 4 and the accrued penalty. Item line

“End of Period Balance” shall be filled out for column 8 only, by showing as a total the overdue part of the annual stamp duty as of the end of period and the accrued penalty.
